

Sven Marcel Schiemann

I'm a Webdesigner from Germany.

In order to describe myself I could say that my initiative and my capacity of assuming new challenges, always lead me to success. I have aquired both excellent teamwork and independent skills, being responsible, Physically strong, a fast and enthusiastic learner, punctual and high frustration tolerance. Also I'm willing to give everything to comply with the goals of the company and solve the problems and queries that the clients may have.
